FREEDOM FOR ALL

Freedom for All . . . the idea, the concept began 200 years ago. This year we celebrate and remember the beginning of this idea—the idea that affects all of our lives more than we realize.

What does freedom mean in this country? It means we can criticize our government and challenge our police without getting thrown in jail. The very fact that we as a people can complain about our government shows the existence of freedom in this country. But what does freedom mean to us the student? What does it mean today?

It means that we can come and go from campus as we choose. It means we can pick our own classes and participate in the activities of our choice. It means also that no matter what we have done, we have the right to the due process of law.

Freedom does not, however, mean that we have the right to do anything that we choose. Along with freedom also comes responsibility. The responsibility of accounting for our own actions and the responsibility of being willing to get involved. A democracy is not a chaotic situation, it is a free situation. Freedom is a constant struggle, therefore in order to maintain freedom for all, we must always struggle to mature, to be open, to discover and to endure.

FREEDOM FOR ALL RECOGNITION

To transcend the ordinary is a freedom that earns the glory of recognition.

—Robin Bell

Each of us has the ability to transcend the ordinary and each country allows their people to do so. The difference between our country and other countries is that in this country our freedom allows us to earn the glory of recognition for our achievements.

We are allowed to receive recognition for such things as band, academic ability and sports. But we are also allowed to receive and bestow special honors such as Homecoming King and Queen Key Club Sweetheart and Outstanding Senior Boy and Girl.

Susana Pantelidou is from Thessalonia, Greece, the second largest city with a population of one million. She is living with Mrs. Nancy Dodd. Susana wanted to be a foreign exchange student because she likes the experience of meeting people and their cultures. "We learn from each other."

FREEDOM ENTHUSIASM FOR ALL

Freedom begins with enthusiasm.

—Susan Oremus

Two hundred years ago our freedom was won through the vigor and enthusiasm of our forefathers. The revolution began because a few men were enthusiastic about a new system of government. They saw the opportunity to effect change and they accepted the challenge vigorously. It is this same enthusiasm that we must also achieve to maintain the freedoms we have. One of our first opportunities to accept challenges and respond with enthusiasm is during our high school years. If we avoid the challenges now, we will undoubtedly side-step them in the future. If we accept the challenges offered by involvment in our school, then we will develop the strength, confidence and enthusiasm to face the challenges ahead.

FREEDOM ENDURING FOR ALL

To achieve freedom we must endure all kinds of hardships.

. . . Kathy Gessner

Seniors . . . the final year. With the total enrollment of 2053, and 409 seniors have won their freedom. The hand of life is held out to them, ready for the taking. And the seniors grasp that hand with maturity, openess, the air of discovery and the sense of endurance. They are ready to accept the freedom that will soon be theirs. They can step into the world and take their place. Many will go to college. Many will start an unfamiliar new life with new relationships. Most have met the responsibility of freedom. But all of them leave with anxiety and sadness. Anxiety of what the future will bring and sadness for the memories left behind.

FREEDOM DISCOVERING FREEDOM FOR ALL

Freedom is discovering who we are and what we will become.

. . . Kim Tanner

Juniors . . . the beginning of the end- as upperclassmen, a new responsibility. Their freedom begins to bud like the beginning of spring. Their independance comes in the form of a driver's license and a car. With this independance comes the chance to discover and understand the person within. They are allowed to grow and be free—freer than they have ever been. They must begin to find themselves for in one short year they, too, must be ready to accept freedom.

FREEDOM OPENING FOR ALL

Freedom is a whole new kind of opening.

. . . Mike Williams

Sophomores-the second year- a time of waiting. Held suspended between the freshman and junior years, the sophomores see a whole new horizon opening for them. Their lives become fuller and richer. They wait with open arms for the future-a future that will bring the reality of what freedom is very close. As they wait, they will hopefully grow and learn to accept and cope with the openess and freeness of our society.

FREEDOM MATURING FOR ALL

Maturity is recognizing your freedoms, not abusing them and being willing to fight to maintain them.

. . . Jean Bremser

Freshman . . . the beginning. They are free to mature, to understand the requirements of freedom.

Through maturity and only through maturity they begin to become an active team member in the game of democracy. They begin to understand what is expected of them in order to gain future freedom.

They are trusted in a new society, a society that is more relaxed and freer than before. This new society also requires, as a democracy requires, a mature person.

FREEDOM FELLOWSHIP FOR ALL

Freedom includes the special privilege of self-expression.

. . . Joan Thum

In our society, there is a great emphasis on being ourselves. This is true in this country much more so than in any other country. This is true because in this country our freedom includes the special privilege of self-expression. In school we are allowed to express ourselves beyond our academic ability, through special interest clubs. In these clubs we not only are allowed to express our opinions and special abilities and interests, but we also have the opportunities of fellowship. We have the chance to be with people we enjoy doing things we like and expressing ourselves freely. This is true fellowship.

FREEDOM FOR ALL OFFERINGS

Learning and gaining knowledge is one of the obligations of freedom

—Connie Paul

Freedom allows many privileges and opportunities, but along with these come duties and obligations that we must meet in order to maintain our freedom. One of the basic obligations is to learn and gain knowledge, for this is vital to a democracy. Uneducated people fall prey to dictatorships and oppressive governments. Our massive public school system is designed to eliminate this threat, but schools can only offer the information. It is up to us, as students, to absorb and use this knowledge. This is our first step to true freedom.

This year all freshman and sophomore English students took a criterion reference grammar test required by the district. The test results helped teachers know what to concentrate on during the year. The freshmen read several novels and explored the various course offerings at THS. The sophomores enjoyed various guest speakers during their unit on careers. The junior English classes again celebrated "Greek Week" in which they ended a mythology unit by portraying Greek gods. Mrs. Julie Willis replaced Ms. Debbie Johnson when she left the staff just before Christmas this year. The newest course, Communications and Careers, focused on communicating ideas to others verbally and through other methods, such as body language.

The Business Department has started a new club; FBLA, Future Business Leaders of America. In early February, FBLA attended a conference at Phoenix Union High School, at which they competed with other schools in such areas as shorthand and typing. They also had discussions on money-raising activities and ways to spark interest in the club in order to obtain new members. Both C.O.E. and D.E. held an employee-employer banquet in the spring. In February, the old C.O.E. girls kidnapped the New C.O.E. girls and took them to breakfast. In C.O.E. and D.E., students work for one-half day, and go to school for the other half. In addition to pay, they get two credits for the course.

Social Studies program offers Arizona History

This year a new one-semester course in Arizona Government has been added to the Social Studies section. This is a required course for graduation. Seniors in U.S. Government and Economics assumed the responsibilities of U.S. Senators in the Mock Senate which took place in November. The "Senior Senate" voted and debated on bills and propositions, just as a regular senate does. Juniors in U.S. History went on a field trip to see the Freedom Train, in honor of the Bicentennial. Also, the Juniors put on the play, "1776" for other U.S. History classes, and video-taped parts of it for Open House.

Students learn to care for children

The Home Economics Department prepared students for adult life through simulated societies, field trips to model homes and stores, sewing, cooking, and caring for children. Senior Tamara Hohn won the Betty Crocker "Search for Leadership Award" from our school, and will be presented the "Family Leader of Tomorrow Award" from Thunderbird at the graduation awards ceremony. In Foreign Language classes, students learned to communicate in four different classes.

Industrial Arts classes include Woods, Metals, Autos and a new course in Auto Maintenance. There is one work study program under the Industrial Arts curriculum, Industrial Cooperative Education. This is the second year for ICE. It involves any career that is not included in COE, DE, or HERO (Home Ec. related careers). In the ICE program, which is only offered to seniors, students go to school for one half day and hold a job related to their career choice for the other half of the day. Mr. Emerson Price, the coordiantor of the program, hopes to have the class offered during early bird period next year.

They have also added a new program for freshmen which deals with algebra. "Algebra Block" is the program, and has used the computer and welcomed a guest speaker this year. "Think Metric" week was this spring for freshmen, in order to increase their understanding of the metric system. They also had a Math Science Fair and a State Math Contest.

The Archery Club is a new club to Thunderbird. It was started in February, for anyone with an interest in the sport. Next year the team expects to participate in competition with other schools. The club met on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Both Boys and Girl's P.E. touched on many different athletic activities. Physical Education is a requirement for freshmen, both boys and girls, and may be repeated as many times as desired. This year the P.E. classes held something new to Thunderbird; Sports Week was during the first week in March.

1 Students join to learn how to square dance as a unit of physical education. 2 Students participate in a friendly game of basketball during P.E. 3 Students learn the proper archery techniques. 4 Coach Ron Jepson talks to boy's P.E. about wrestling.

Physical examinations will no longer be required for students taking P.E. Students need only have a waiver signed by their parents and placed on file in the nurse's office. The Media Center has added one more clerk, more books, and audio-visual equipment, and enlarged the reading room. Rather than using the microfilms, as has been done in the past, magazines starting with 1974 were on microfiches. The microfiche is a card, which has one month on it, rather than one year. This enables more students to take advantage of the magazines on film.

Officer Jerry Zimmerman has returned to THS as a Police Assisting Youth Section officer. During the year, he spoke to classes and answered individual students questions on the law.

1 Mr. Bob McGregor and Ms. Sue Ausley relax during their busy morning schedule. 2 Carrie Fitzgerald and Lisa Poole listen while Mrs. Edie Krombein explains routine Health Center Procedures. 3 Mr. Jerry Zimmerman, THS Pays Officer, smiles as he takes time and Tony Spisak study in the Media Center during class.

Cafeteria staff takes short break

The cafeteria has added a new speed line in the student cafeteria, in order to avoid congestion at the hot food counters. The speed line is designed mainly for those students packing lunch or getting a burrito or sandwich rather than the hot lunch. This line is equipped to handle beverages, sandwiches, burritos, and cinnamon rolls. The snack bar has introduced a similar feature, with the addition of two new lines, one of which serves only candy. The other can handle drinks and hamburgers, fries, and chips. The cafeteria emphasized entrees more this year, also.

FREEDOM FOR RIVALRY ALL

Freedom is the choice of competition.

. . . Beth Reinhart

One of our greatest freedoms in this country is our freedom of choice. We have the choice of voting or not, of serving in the armed forces or not, or of competing in sports or not. In many countries these choices are not existant. For us, we not only have a choice of whether to compete, but we also have the choice of what sports to compete in. We are not forced to compete in any certain sport-nor are we forced to work beyond our abilities. Our only pressures are the goals we set for ourselves. It is important that we realize how extremely lucky we are to have the freedom of choice both in sports and life.

The Varsity football team continued its winning tradition with a 5-4-1 record following last year's 5-5 mark and the previous season which saw a 6-3 squad. The defense was headed by Juniors Rod Anfinson and Tim Little. Anfinson was named to the second team Skyline All-Star squad, and Little received Honorable Mention. The offense was sparked by the pass catching of Glen Jones and the running of Gary Brasher. Jones caught 21 passes for 470 yards, and led the team in scoring with 42 points on 7 touchdowns. Brasher broke school rushing records with 755 yards on the season and 128 in a single game. Both were given Honorable Mention.

J.V. Chiefs battle despite record

Despite a poor 1-7-1 record, the J.V. football team fought hard all year. They had several good games, almost winning them. They lost by only 1 point to Shadow Mountain, only 2 to Peoria, and they tied always tough St. Mary's. With another year of practice and hard work, the men on this team can look forward to a good season on the Varsity squad. 2 A hard hit by No. 44 of the Chiefs, Dave Burns, causes a fumble by a Glendale runner. Travis Olroyd (50) moves in to recover the loose ball.

The Freshman "A" football team staggered through a disappointing 0-7-1 season this year. There were few bright spots as the Chiefs scored only twice all year. But they did manage a tie with Glendale, lost by only 2 points to Peoria, and only 6 to Shadow Mountain. So the ability was there, and with a little hard work and practice, this ability will show through.

Frosh "B" rolls to great season

The Frosh "B" football team enjoyed yet another great season. Only a loss in the last game of the season to Moon Valley marred their record, as they rolled to a 6-1-1 mark. Runningback Mike Deerr ripped for over 1000 yards rushing in only 8 games, showing he is a true Varsity prospect. Coach Dale Bauman continued his coaching excellence at the freshman level, upping his career mark to 14-1-1.

FREEDOM FOR ALL

As the school year ends and the Bicentennial celebrations draw near, the importance of freedom in our lives becomes apparent to all of us. Some of us face a summer of freedom, some of us face the freedom of career choices and those of us continuing our education face the academic freedom of selecting our course of study.

We have gradually come to take such basic freedoms for granted. We don't even stop to think that we are free to move, free to voice our opinions, free to make our own decisions, free to succeed or fail on our own. Ever since our nation began, individual Americans have struggled to maintain these freedoms. In order to maintain these freedoms each one of us must be willing to accept the responsibilities that come with these freedoms. Our responsibility to our country is to try to maintain it's freedoms, to die if we must. A responsibility to ourselves is to continue maturing and growing and the responsibility to continue renewing our knowledge. It is these responsibilities that make freedom a constant struggle.

But through the struggle we achieve our goals. We achieve the goal of maintaining our freedom but most of all we achieve our ultimate goal: FREEDOM FOR ALL.

We would like to express special thanks to Vince Stein for the cover design and to Walter Riordan and Rick Steinke for Photography.
